With regard to the original and previously unpublished paper entitled,

by _____ the following terms are submitted for your consideration. If these terms are satisfactory, please sign below and return this agreement to the University of Chicago production office. We will not publish your paper without this approval.

Copyright Assignment: Because the Astronomical Society of the Pacific (ASP) is undertaking to publish this paper, and because you desire to have this paper so published, you grant and assign the entire copyright for this paper exclusively to the ASP. The copyright consists of all rights protected by the original copyright laws of the United States and of all foreign countries, in all languages and forms of communication.

The ASP, in return, grants to you the non-exclusive rights of publication, subject only to your giving appropriate credit to the Publications. To protect the copyright in this paper, the original copyright notice as it appears in the Publications should be included in the credit.

Compensation and Subsidiary Rights: It is understood that you will receive no monetary compensation from the ASP for the assignment of copyright and publication of the paper. Please note, however, that you may grant or deny requests to reprint this paper in books or journals, and you may retain all fees from such reprinting. We will forward such requests to you.

Who Should Sign: The agreement should be signed by at least one of the authors (who agrees to inform the others, if any) or, in the case of a “work made for hire,” by the employer.

An author who is a U.S. Government officer or employee and who prepared the paper as part of his or her official duties does not own any copyright in it. If at least one of the authors is not in this category, that author should sign below. If all the authors are in this category, please check the box below and return this form unsigned.
